Development and Training Days 2025

Development Days

The following Development days have been confirmed:

Sunday 25th May - Town Loch – now Sunday 1st June

Tuesday 27th May – Cotswold – Underway as this newsletter is being finalised with 10 young skiers being coached by Tom Parkin.

Wednesday 28th May – Southlake – Taking place tomorrow with seven skiers.

Thursday 29th May - White Rose

These will be traditional Development Days, available to the usual cohort of skiers.

Invitational 'Talent Spot' Trick/Slalom Days

We have decided to refine the offering this year and propose to run an invitational 'talent spot' day at Rickmansworth and possibly at an additional site this year. This initiative will focus on strong, young skiers who may have the potential to ski for Britain in the future. More details to come.

Invitational Jump Camp

We shall also offer an invitational jump event to create a cohort of young competitive skiers in the jump event. This will focus primarily on those skiers we have already taught to jump from prior Development Days, and we hope will create a strong bond between those skiers too. More details to come.

Youngsters' Intro' Days

We are also proposing one or two intro days for young skiers feeding into clubs. Again, more details to follow as plans are finalised.

Under-21 Slalom/SBD3/Coaching/Judging Camp

Finally, we have agreed that we should run a day, for promising under-21(non-team) skiers who have much to offer as both skiers and officials in the future. The idea would be to enhance their skiing and competition preparation whilst also preparing them for SBD3 Driver qualifications alongside coaching and judging qualifications. This might be a one or two day affair and is work in progress.

So, an ambitious programme for 2025 building on 7 years of Development Day experience

Squad Training

FoT has organized Squad Training days every year focused on our U21 and Youth Squad skiers. These sessions have allowed our skiers who will be representing Team GB at European and world titled events to spend time training together. This year the European Youth Championships are in mid July and it is proving difficult to find suitable dates for Squad training in advance of this event and outside school time.

So, for this year FoT have given each UK based Squad skier from all categories, five Coaching vouchers that can be used at Hazelwoods, Gosfield, Thorpe and Dams . Of course, this enables the skiers to have a little bit of subsidized training at their chosen time.

The Backyard events provide a great entry into the competition world for club skiers and hopefully many will progress to Ranking List events and National Championships

Loan Kit Scheme

The Loan Kit Scheme is now being managed by Cora Coster and Adele Fearn. The arrangements are that a piece of equipment can be borrowed for six months but then must either be returned or purchased. If you have equipment on loan that should be returned please contact Adele or Cora. An extension to the loan period can also be requested. Adele and Cora will be available for any kit donations at the 1st comp/conference at Hazelwoods over the May Bank Holiday weekend. If anyone is looking for kit please contact Adele or Cora to see what is available. Cora Coster at cora@carpolinsurance.co.uk or Adele Fearn at adelefeearn99@gmail.com
