OVERVIEW

Your competition licence, alongside your BWSW membership, provides access to competing in our sport. In addition, any licence fee payment will support our technical and judging programmes and officials. The licence will be active for the season providing you are a current member of BWSW. Once you have obtained a competition licence, you will be registered (if not already) on the BWSW Event Management System (EMS). If this is the first time you are being registered on the EMS, you will then receive a registration email from the EMS. If you wish to enter a competition, once you have obtained BWSW membership and a BWSW competition licence, you will need to complete your EMS registration, purchase an EMS licence and then you can enter.
